

Board members met via Zoom on December 1, 2020. Those in attendance were Lorri Brockman, Julie Dunn, Claire Flatowicz, Pierre Flatowicz, Cookie Hoberman, Jill McDermott and Carol Miller.

The treasurer's report was reviewed and approved.

It was stated that Ruth (owner of the Omaha Bridge Studio) is okay with directors that would like to have games having them. It was also stated that ACBL has mandated that clubs stay closed until February.

Two members have expressed an interest on being on Unit 241's board next year. Pierre Flatowicz and Carol Miller have chosen not to be on the board after this year. Those expressing an interest are: Barb O'Daniel and Rod Anderson. Deenie Meyerson had requested more information about what it would entail to be on the board. Note that if there are only the number of candidates running to be on the board as there are openings, no vote by the membership is required.

Cookie will check with Mid America Center to verify that they will still allow us to have the regionals there in August.

Cookie is willing to work ad hoc.

Respectfully submitted,
Secretary of Unit 241,
Julie Dunn
